

Singapore Flu Pandemic Preparedness

Presentation Topic

Public-Private (utilities) sector collaborations in pandemic preparedness

National Strategy

Lead Agency:

MINISTRY OF HEALTH
SINGAPORE

- Effective Surveillance System
- Minimise Mortality & Morbidity
 - > Infection Control
 - > Healthcare Mgt
 - > Increase social distances
 - > Vaccination

- Outcomes
 - > Maintain essential services
 - > Reduce morbidity & mortality
 - > Limit the spread of influenza

MOH DORSCON-Flu Alert Levels

↑ Threat

Black

Mortality & morbidity rates exceedingly high

Red

Increasing trend of mortality & morbidity rates

Orange

Local / global human-to-human transmissions of flu

Yellow

Inefficient human-to-human transmissions of flu outside Singapore

Green
Level 1

Local cases of animal to human transmission

Green
Level 0

No novel flu virus outbreaks

- Ensure resilience of operations
- Safeguard health and welfare of employees
 - Detect & prevent the spread of influenza disease
 - Reduce possibility of exposure
 - effective surveillance system
 - effective infection control

Utilities - Business Continuity Strategy

Collaborative Preparedness Activities

Surveillance - CTTs, CTT kits, Temp checks,

Infection Control Measure - PPE , Isolation Rooms

Vaccination - Seasonal flu / Anti-Viral prophylaxis

Collaborative Preparedness Activities- Cont

Communication -

- > MOH's Advice
- > Government Flu Websites (www.flu.gov.sg)
- > MOH Website (www.moh.gov.sg)
- > SPRING Singapore Website (www.spring.gov.sg)

Awareness
Training
Exercises

Awareness - Briefing to Employees

Power - BCM Exercise

Ex "White Hornet"

Gas - BCM Exercise

Ex “Red Flamingo”

Conclusion

Flu Pandemic can happen any time.....

Resilience

>> Successful Public- Private Collaborations

Risk Analysis

Business Impact Analysis

Strategies

Business Continuity Plans

Training & Exercises

居安思危

For enquiries, please contact

Ong Liong Chuan

Dy Director (Business Continuity & Crisis Management)

SP PowerGrid Ltd

Singapore

Mobile: (65) 97569988

<liongchuan@singaporepower.com.sg>
